

From Truth to Justice: People's Climate Movement Atlanta Events and Activities April 22 – 28
We Rise. We Build. We Resist.

April 22 March for Science

www.marchforscienceatlanta.org

<https://www.facebook.com/events/1819005175030640/>

Climate advocacy, equity, environmental justice, and environmental organizations should wear green and/or bring zero emissions transportation bike, skateboards, roller skates etc.

Gather at Edgewood-Candler Park MARTA Station at 11:30 am.
March for Science begins at 12 noon at Candler Park

April 23 to April 27 Truth to Justice

April 23 Earth Day Sunday Service
No specific location identified

April 24 Policy Day

Engage in activities to advance policy initiatives. (1) write a blog on a selected policy; (2) write a letter to the editor; (3) host a lunch time conversation; (4) visit elected officials; (5) read an article on a policy initiative and take action; (6) pledge to support a selected policy; (7) convene a community meeting on a policy initiative; (8) host or view a previous webinar; (9) contribute time and/or money to organizations working on policy initiatives; (10) volunteer with a local organization to help advance policy.

April 24 Carbon Free Walk, Bike, Skate, Stroll, Reflect and Bar Hop – Atlanta Beltline East Side Trail

Meet at 6 pm at one of the trails below.

Bring zero-emissions transportation

Walk, stroll, reflect, converse on the importance of caring for creation, environmental stewardship, strong regulations, post-PCM actions, visioning for a better tomorrow, etc.

10th Street to Krog Street (1.9 miles). Bars: Two Urban Licks, Ponce City Market Food Hall, Ladybird and North Highland Avenue.

Ponce City Market to Krog Street (1.2 miles). Bars: Ponce City Market Food Hall, Ladybird and North Highland Avenue.

April 25 Art-Making for the Truth, Care of Creation, Resistance, Equity, and Justice

Day-Long Art Making/Building Session with Guest Artist, Students, Family Members; Schools (Art Institute of Georgia, SCAD); Faith Based Organizations; Frontline Community Members

9:00 am to 5:00 pm

Office of the Center for Sustainable Communities

100 Flat Shoals Ave. Atlanta

April 26 Exploring Our Good Earth with Youth

Truly Living Well Center for Natural Urban Agriculture

324 Lawton St. Atlanta

Engage in early learning activities with Pre-Schoolers at Truly Living Well Urban Garden.

Explore the farm, planting, harvesting, growing local food.

Learning to care for creation at an early age

April 28 Rally for Resilience

7:30 pm – 10 pm

Mammal Art Gallery

91 Broad St. Atlanta (Two blocks southwest from Five Points MARTA)

D.C Bus Launch and Kick Off Event

Music, Food, Art Displays, Special Speakers

Host: Eric Moncrief, Green Guy

Speakers: Rev. Gerald Durley, Stephanie Stuckey Benfield, Laura Turner Seydel, Ted Terry

<https://www.facebook.com/events/1503804709637708/>

April 29 Journey to Justice - People's Climate Movement in Washington D.C.

<https://www.facebook.com/events/1872658209682784/>

Reserve your bus ticket to D.C. here

www.eventbrite.com/e/georgia-buses-to-the-peoples-climate-march-tickets-31776663857